“Turning spaces into stories.”

This brochure is for information only and does not form part of any offer or contract. Plot dimensions, extents and facings are transcribed from the approved layout and are subject to verification at site before purchase. Plot availability is correct at the date of printing. The peripheral road band shown on the layout plan follows the Rev. 2 mark-up and its width awaits final confirmation. Prospective purchasers are advised to satisfy themselves independently as to title, approvals and measurements.
